

“ Once I selected John Marshall Law School for my law studies, I never looked back. John Marshall taught me great discipline, and I now apply that discipline to every facet of my life. People often say they wish they would have done something else with their careers. You’ll never hear those words from me. John Marshall has provided me with more opportunities than I ever could have imagined. I will continue to support John Marshall, not for what it has done for me but for what it allows me to do for the legal community in which I practice and the civic community in which I live. Thank you, John Marshall, for your continued support.”
