Class-action lawsuit filed against ComEd seeks billions in wake of bribery scandal.

FOX 32 Chicago | June 3, 2021

CHICAGO – A class-action lawsuit has been filed against ComEd in the wake of the bribery scandal involving state government officials.

The lawsuit, filed in Cook County Circuit Court by attorneys at DiCello Levitt Gutzler and Romanucci & Blandin, says customers have been overpaying on their electric bills, and will continue to overpay, as a result of legislation fueled by the bribes.
