

Our Thinking: In The News

Related Attorneys

Antonio M. Romanucci

Related Practice

Environmental & Toxic Torts

Mass Torts & Class Actions

Did Sterigenics Preemptively Pay Out Investors To Drain Legal Settlement Funds?

WBEZ Radio Chicago | February 3, 2020

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency shut down the Sterigenics plant in Willowbrook last year after discovering high levels of ethylene oxide near the facility. Now, the lawyers suing Sterigenics claim the company not only made people sick, but it redirected $1.3 billion in an effort to reduce their potential payouts.

Read full article here