Family of Byron Williams still waiting for answers one year later

ABC 13 Las Vegas | September 5, 2020

Exactly one year ago, Byron Williams died after being arrested by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. His family asks today for further transparency from LVMPD and for the release of all body camera footage.

In a press conference along with their legal team from Romanucci & Blandin and the group "Forced Trajectory Project," they expressed the lack of transparency from LVMPD.

Attorney Antonio Romanucci said "The Las Vegas Police Department will not share, won't share all the video because if they did share, that will be called transparency and transparency isn't what they want, they want us to dog and fight and for this family to continue to ask questions, as to what happened that night. they deserve justice, they deserve answers".
