Sheriff sued over fatal shooting of man after dog's killing

U.S. News | October 14, 2021

The family of a man who was fatally shot by a Michigan sheriff's deputy after the officer killed his dog has filed a lawsuit claiming excessive force and other violations.

"The sheriff and the deputy will be held accountable for the 'shoot first and ask questions later' decision-making that cost Oscar Herrera his life," attorney Ian Fallon said Thursday.
