Bruno R. Marasso in Leadership Role with Justinian Society of Lawyers

August 27, 2020

CHICAGO, IL – Romanucci & Blandin, LLC, a national personal injury firm primarily based in Chicago, is pleased to announce that Senior Associate Bruno R. Marasso has begun a term with the Justinian Society of Lawyers as its Second Vice President.

Bruno focuses his practice in the areas of automobile collisions, wrongful death, premises liability, police misconduct and institutional misconduct. Bruno has served on the Assembly of the Illinois State Bar Association and is an active member of the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, Chicago Bar Association and American Association of Justice. He has been named as an Emerging Lawyer by Law Bulletin Publishing Company every year since 2017, a Rising Star by Super Lawyer every year since 2018, and was recently named to Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch for 2021. While a law student at Chicago-Kent, he was a four-time recipient of the CALI Excellence for the Future Award.

Since the founding of the Justinian Society of Lawyers in 1921, this venerable institution has become one of the largest ethnic bar associations in the United States. Its Italian-American members are among the most active and influential in the legal profession. The society takes great pride in its contributions to the practice of law and to the administration of the justice system. To learn more visit www.justinians.org.

“Bruno Marasso’s dedication to excellence in the practice of law makes him valuable to our law firm, but also to the Justinian Society in its legal advocacy more broadly. We are proud of Bruno’s leadership role and look forward to continued good things from the organization,” said Antonio M. Romanucci, founding partner of Romanucci & Blandin, LLC.
