Bruno R. Marasso Installed in Justinian Society Leadership Role

May 27, 2021

CHICAGO, IL – Romanucci & Blandin, LLC a national personal injury firm primarily based in Chicago, is pleased to announce that Senior Associate Bruno R. Marasso has been installed with the Justinian Society of Lawyers as its First Vice President. The installment took place May 20, 2021.

Bruno focuses his practice in the areas of automobile collisions, wrongful death, premises liability, and institutional misconduct. Bruno most recently served as Second Vice President of the Justinian Society of Lawyers. He has served on the Assembly of the Illinois State Bar Association and is an active member of the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, and American Association of Justice. He has been named as an Emerging Lawyer by Law Bulletin Publishing Company every year since 2017, a Rising Star by Super Lawyer every year since 2018 and was recently named to Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch for 2021. While a law student at Chicago-Kent, he was a four-time recipient of the CALI Excellence for the Future Award.

Since the founding of the Justinian Society of Lawyers in 1921, this venerable institution has become one of the largest ethnic bar associations in the United States. Its Italian-American members are among the most active and influential in the legal profession. The society takes great pride in its contributions to the practice of law and to the administration of the justice system. To learn more visit www.justinians.org.

“We are pleased by Bruno Marasso’s continued leadership contribution the Justinian Society of Lawyers and his steadfast dedication to his clients and to the practice of law. The legal advocacy of the Justinian Society of Lawyers is highly valued by those in the legal profession as well as by the broader community it serves,” said Antonio M. Romanucci, founding partner of Romanucci & Blandin, LLC.
