BICYCLE ACCIDENT ATTORNEYS | ROMANUCCI & BLANDIN

Bicycling is a popular recreational sport as well as a way for many people to get to and from work and school. Because of their small size, bicycles are often involved in accidents that sometimes result in serious and permanent injuries. If you are in a bicycle accident and believe another person was at fault, you may be eligible for monetary damages to cover all your medical bills, lost time from work or school, and pain and suffering. The attorneys at Romanucci & Blandin, who are very experienced in this area of the law, will quickly determine whether you have a case, and if so, litigate your case to the fullest extent allowed by law.

Your bicycle accident claim

With headquarters in Chicago, Romanucci & Blandin approaches a bicycle accident claim as a way to provide monetary compensation and hold a culpable the at fault person, machine operator or organization responsible for any physical and emotional damages that have occurred.
