TRUCK ACCIDENT ATTORNEYS | ROMANUCCI & BLANDIN

Truck accident expertise

The consequences of a vehicle accident involving a truck can be devastating, leading to property damage, serious injuries and even wrongful death. Our experienced attorneys handle all types of truck accidents including hit and run accidents and those involving drunk drivers. We know traffic collisions can have both short-term and long-term impact. For example, someone involved in a truck collision may suffer severe injuries including whiplash or a traumatic brain injury that cause pain and suffering, require long-term medical treatment, create medical bills and lost wages. The truck collision attorneys at our law firm have secured justice and a fair settlement for many accident victims.
