November 2012

A car driven by our 54-year-old male plaintiff was hit head-on at 55th and Kedzie in Chicago, IL by a vehicle operated by an uninsured individual who was fleeing Chicago Police at high speed after the officers tried to stop him for a traffic violation. The plaintiff's trauma included a fractured left calcaneus, and severe right leg and foot injuries - leaving him using a cane when walking, and with an abnormal gait. Allegedly, the officers engaged in the pursuit in violation of standing orders.
