

Our Thinking: Justice & Results

$1,900,000 Settlement – Pharmaceutical Error

Prior to litigation commencing, the wife of a 50-year-old man received restitution upon her husband's untimely death after he was prescribed a lethal dosage of morphine. Her husband, who was recently given a good prognosis after finishing rounds of chemotherapy for treatment of his tongue cancer, died after being given six times the normal dosage of morphine by the pharmacy.