

Our Thinking: Justice & Results

Related Practice

Brain Injuries

Premises Liability

$900,000 Settlement – Premises Liability

As our client and his wife were crossing the street under the "el" tracks in Chicago's Loop, a 16-foot-long piece of fiberglass angle guard, weighing approximately 25 pounds, fell from the track, striking the man in the occipital region of the head and the left shoulder, causing a traumatic brain injury and partial rotator cuff tear.