

Our Thinking: Justice & Results

$925,000 Settlement – Construction Accident

A male HVAC worker sustained extensive injuries to his wrist, shoulder and ankle, which required a total of 13 surgeries, after falling from a hospital roof where he was working. As part of the settlement, the HVAC worker's employer waived $787,452 of its workers' compensation lien, increasing the settlement value to about $1.69 million.