

Our Thinking: In The News

Related Practice

Mass Shooting

14 more lawsuits filed over mass shooting in Las Vegas.

Las Vegas Review-Journal | November 15, 2017

As the days go by, the Las Vegas shooting lawsuits are piling up.

According to complaints filed Wednesday in Clark County District Court, 14 more people are seeking damages from the Oct. 1 mass shooting, which left 58 concertgoers dead and more than 500 injured.

The hotel at which the gunman was situated, Mandalay Bay, and its operating company, MGM Resorts International, were named as defendants, as were the music festival's organizers and the manufacturer of bump stocks — devices the gunman legally obtained, then used to rapidly fire semiautomatic weapons into the crowd.

Read full article here