Lake in the Hills Man Receives $9.05 million settlement from ComEd

Northwest Herald | August 10, 2023

A Lake in the Hills man was awarded a $9.05 million settlement Wednesday as part of a lawsuit against ComEd, according to a news release from Romanucci and Blandin, a personal injury law firm.

Andrew Farley, of Lake in the Hills, was riding his bicycle on a bike trail near Miller Road and Lakewood Road in November 2016. ComEd parked its trucks on the path and lifted utility poles, inadvertently damaging the bike trail beneath the poles, according to the release.
