Attorney Antonio Romanucci & Shareeduh Tate join Anderson Cooper to discuss the Derek Chauvin trial.

CNN - Anderson Cooper 360 | April 13, 2021

Floyd Family Attorney Antonio Romanucci and Shareeduh Tate, George Floyd's cousin and President of the George Floyd Foundation joined Anderson Cooper following a day of expert testimony during Derek Chauvin's trial. Romanucci stresses that this case is about whether or not there was use of force, whether or not it was excessive, and whether that use of force that was excessive caused death. He emphasized that we must default back to the video of Derek Chauvin on George Floyd's neck for over eight minutes where we clearly see this use of force happening.
