

Our Thinking: In The News

Bennie Edwards shot in back by OKCPD officer says DA – charges filed.

Oklahoma City Free Press | February 26, 2021

The affidavit states that Holman shot Edwards three times “unnecessarily” as Edwards was “running away striking him in his upper middle back.”

If convicted, Holman could serve four years to life in prison with the possibility of parole after serving at least 85% of the sentence.

Read full article here