

Our Thinking: In The News

Related Practice

Aviation Accidents

Boeing To Pay More Than $2.5B Over 737 Max Fraud.

Law360 | January 7, 2021

The Boeing Company (Boeing) has entered into an agreement with the Department of Justice to resolve a criminal charge related to a conspiracy to defraud the Federal Aviation Administration's Aircraft Evaluation Group (FAA AEG) in connection with the FAA AEG's evaluation of Boeing's 737 MAX airplane.

Read full article here