Ex-Brooklyn Center police officer arrested, charged with second-degree manslaughter in Daunte Wright's shooting death.

USA Today | April 14, 2021

"Certain occupations carry an immense responsibility and none more so than a sworn police officer," Imran Ali, Washington County assistant criminal division chief, said in a statement. "We ... intend to prove that Officer Potter abrogated her responsibility to protect the public when she used her firearm rather than her taser. Her action caused the unlawful killing of Mr. Wright and she must be held accountable."
