

Our Thinking: In The News

Related Practice

Aviation Accidents

Families of Boeing crash victims renew push for FAA changes.

ABC National News | March 10, 2021

The parents of 24-year-old Samya Rose Stumo met with Transportation Secretary Pete Buttigieg for nearly an hour, then joined other families at a vigil outside FAA headquarters in Washington. In Toronto, the family of Danielle Moore, who was also 24, planned to protest outside the U.S. consulate.

Read full article here