Family, attorneys view body cam video in police shooting death of Oscar Herrera.

Hillsdale Daily News | May 20, 2021

“Oscar Herrera should be alive today. The Hillsdale County Sheriff’s office took a first step towards transparency when it agreed to show the family the video today,” said Attorney Ian Fallon, Romanucci & Blandin, LLC. “Oscar’s family has suffered tremendously over the past several weeks as they’ve waited for details of what happened, with little help from law enforcement. The family is concerned and disappointed that when Oscar was clearly in emotional distress about the death of his dog and his best friend, that the deputy did not show compassion, and instead fired fatal shots that killed him. Now that the family has seen the video, they can start to process this enormous loss.”
