Family of Javier Ambler, a Black man who died during arrest, files wrongful death lawsuit against Williamson County

CNN | October 27, 2020

Ambler, 40, died in March 2019 after a car chase that started in Williamson County and ended in the nearby city of Austin. During the arrest, Ambler can be heard on body camera footage telling sheriff's deputies several times he couldn't breathe.

But there was also additional video from the A&E reality show "Live PD," that accompanied officers on the chase. A&E has said the footage never aired and that the network and its producers were never "asked for the footage or an interview by investigators from law enforcement or the district attorney's office."
