

Our Thinking: In The News

Gurnee lawmaker: Vaping dangers should be taught in schools.

Daily Herald | March 15, 2021

Adam Hergenreder was 16 when he started vaping as a way to fit in with friends at Warren Township High School. His favorite flavors were mint, mango and cucumber, and he would go through the nicotine equivalent of about a pack of cigarettes a day.

Read full article here