

Our Thinking: In The News

Illinois Playbook – Chicago: The new power 30.

POLITICO | February 18, 2021

Gov. J.B. Pritzker delivered his third budget address Wednesday, offering a $41.6 billion proposal that doesn't raise taxes but calls for flat spending and department cuts. It's a reality check for Illinois residents hoping to turn a page on the pandemic that's ravaged the state.

Read full article here