‘Javier Ambler Law’ Passes Texas Senate, Heads To Gov. Greg Abbott’s Desk.

NPR Radio - Austin

Ambler was a 40-year-old Black man who died in March 2019 after Williamson County deputies chased him for 22 minutes for failing to dim his headlights to oncoming traffic. When Ambler stopped, the officers used their tasers on him while he repeatedly told them he had a heart condition and couldn’t breathe. Ambler died shortly after.
