

Our Thinking: In The News

Judge reinstates 3rd-degree murder charge against Derek Chauvin in death of George Floyd.

ABC National News | March 11, 2021

The judge presiding over the trial of former Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin in the death of George Floyd has reinstated a third-degree murder charge in the case after the Minnesota Court of Appeals ruled that the application of the count in another civilian death involving a Minneapolis police officer established precedent.

Read full article here