

Our Thinking: In The News

Law & Order column – Half-million-dollar lawsuit settlement.

Chicago Tribune | April 2, 2021

“By spreading awareness and encouraging dialogue, we can prevent abuse from happening in the first place and help keep our children safe,” LCCAC Executive Director Carrie Flanigan said in the most recent edition of State’s Attorney Eric Rinehart’s newsletter. “Together with our community partners, we are working to show a unified front in our mission to end child abuse.”

Read full article here