

Our Thinking: In The News

Man who spent 22 years in solitary urges Illinois to curb 'psychological torture'.

The Guardian | May 12, 2021

An inmate who spent 22 years in solitary confinement in an Illinois prison after being arrested for stealing a hat and a dollar bill is campaigning for legislation to end a practice that he says drove him to self-mutilation and a suicide attempt.

Read full article here