

Our Thinking: In The News

Part 3 – When are Coast police allowed to use deadly force? Some departments won't say.

Biloxi SunHerald | June 2, 2021

When are police officers allowed to use deadly force to protect themselves or the public?

The answer is based on principles established by the Supreme Court and on policies created by local police departments.

Read full article here