Protesters gather in Rochester streets after announcement that no officers will be charged in Daniel Prude's death.

CNN | February 24, 2021

Prude, a 41-year-old Black man, was having a mental health episode on March 23 when officers handcuffed him, covered his head with a "spit sock" and held him on the ground in a prone position. Prude was taken to a hospital, declared brain dead and died a week later.
