Waukegan police shooting victim Marcellis Stinnette did not get immediate aid because authorities feared he had a gun, records show

Lake County News-Sun | November 6, 2020

Other officers feared the Waukegan couple might be armed after Salinas shot them shortly after midnight on Oct. 21 near the intersection of Helmholtz and South Martin Luther King Jr. avenues, according to police and 911 call records released Thursday by the city of Waukegan in response to public records requests.
