City officials move to fire Chicago police officer in fatal 2018 shooting of 24-year-old Maurice Granton.

Chicago Tribune | August 7, 2021

A Chicago police officer now faces firing for an on-duty fatal shooting of a 24-year-old man three years ago in the South Side's Bronzeville neighborhood.

Officer Sheldon Thrasher is accused of violating several Police Department rules when he fatally shot Maurice Granton Jr. as he tried to scale a fence, according to paperwork from the Chicago Police Board, the city's police disciplinary panel.
