Antonio M. Romanucci will receive the inaugural Dominic DiFrisco Lifetime Achievement Award. He is a founding partner at the law firm Romanucci & Blandin, a national trial practice representing victims of negligence, abuse and wrongful death arising from corporate negligence, civil rights actions, business interruption, medical malpractice, mass torts and class actions, as well as police misconduct.

A past president of the Justinian Society of Lawyers and the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, Romanucci currently serves on the Chicago Bar Association's Board of Managers, the Public Justice Board of Directors, and holds multiple leadership roles with the American Association for Justice.
