Lake County Illinois Teenager Nearly Loses his Life to Vaping

WGN-TV Chicago | January 24, 2020

Lake County, Illinois teenager Adam Hergenreder went from an otherwise healthy teenager to wrestling with an addiction that nearly cost him his life. Romanucci & Blandin client Hergenreder and his family share their incredibly scary story in an in-depth interview with WGN Chicago, highlighting the advanced damage done to Adam's lungs by vaping and the lawsuit filed against e-cigarette maker Juul, alleging the company used deceptive marketing tactics to target adolescents. R&B founding partner, Antonio Romanucci shares how the firm will continue its efforts to seek full recovery for the related damages sustained by Hergenreder and America's youth related to this reckless company's deceiving marketing efforts.
