Missouri Department of Transportation knew crossing was not safe before Amtrak crash

KMIZ - 17 | June 28, 2022

The Missouri Department of Transportation identified the crossing where an Amtrak train crashed into a dump truck Monday as needing safety improvements earlier this year.

The death toll from an Amtrak train crash and derailment Monday in Chariton County is now up to four.

The NTSB has begun the investigation into what caused the fatal Amtrak train crash in Chariton County. Read more
