Bruno R. Marasso Installed as President of the Justinian Society of Lawyers

September 23, 2022

Romanucci & Blandin, LLC a national personal injury firm primarily based in Chicago, is pleased to announce that Partner Bruno R. Marasso has been installed as President of the Justinian Society of Lawyers (JSOL). The installment took place September 22, 2022 at the JSOL Awards Dinner at the Palmer House Hilton in Chicago.

Marasso focuses his practice in the areas of automobile collisions, wrongful death, premises liability, and institutional misconduct. Before being installed as President of the Justinian Society of Lawyers, he served as First Vice President of the Society. He has served on the Assembly of the Illinois State Bar Association and is an active member of the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association and the American Association of Justice. He has been named as an Emerging Lawyer by Law Bulletin Publishing Company every year since 2017, a Rising Star by Super Lawyer every year since 2018, named to Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch for 2021 and most recently named to the list of Best Lawyers in America for 2023. While a law student at Chicago-Kent, he was a four-time recipient of the CALI Excellence for the Future Award.

Since the founding of the Justinian Society of Lawyers in 1921, this venerable institution has become one of the largest ethnic bar associations in the United States. Its Italian-American members are among the most active and influential in the legal profession. The society takes great pride in its contributions to the practice of law and to the administration of the justice system. To learn more visit www.justinians.org.

“Romanucci & Blandin has a rich history in serving the Justinian Society of Lawyers and I am proud to continue it with my term as President. As Justinians, we pride ourselves in contributing to both the legal profession and to the community and I am humbled to serve in this role,” said Bruno R. Marasso, Partner of Romanucci & Blandin and President of the Justinian Society of Lawyers.

“Bruno Marasso’s leadership of the Justinian Society of Lawyers will no doubt result in meaningful value to the organization. Bruno is both a dedicated and highly strategic attorney who cares deeply about his clients as well as a respected member of the Italian-American community, both of which will serve the organization well,” said Antonio M. Romanucci, Founding Partner of Romanucci & Blandin, LLC and past President of JSOL.

“Having worked alongside Bruno Marasso for many years at the firm, with the JSOL and the Endowment Fund, I can’t speak highly enough of his character and commitment. We look forward to continued progress with the Justinians during his term as President,” said Frank A.

Sommario, Senior Partner at Romanucci & Blandin, past President of the JSOL, and Chair of the Justinian Society of Lawyers Endowment Fund.
